River Johanson

SOUS CHEF

Boston, USA • (603) 831-0359 • River.Johanson@gmail.com

Summary

SousChef with 8+ years working in high-volume fine dining and farm to table restaurants, supporting $4-5M annual F&B revenue while holding food cost at 25-30%. Forbes 4-star listed and AAA 4-Diamond recognized. Experienced in leading service, developing seasonal menus, and maintaining high standards in busy kitchens.

Experience

Sous Chef July 2026 - Sept 2026

1928 Rowes Wharf Boston, MA

- Helped transition the menu toward more seasonal, creative, and approachable food while keeping execution practical for service.
- Took responsibility for daily kitchen operations, ordering, opening and closing, and staff training.
- Handled whole-fish, poultry, and lamb butchery while developing daily specials and new menu dishes.
- Created several current menu items, including cocoa-rubbed duck breast, Black Sea bass crudo, red currant scallops, and duck confit.

Sous Chef Aug 2023 - July 2026

Deuxave Boston, MA

- Led 6–10 kitchen staff through busy dinner services at a Forbes 4-Star restaurant, keeping quality and standards consistent.
- Handled day-to-day kitchen operations including ordering, scheduling, food costs, opening and closing, and training new staff.
- Worked across all stations as needed, with a focus on butchery, fresh pasta, and seasonal menu development.
- Helped develop and execute dishes across both à la carte and tasting menus, serving 160+ guests on peak nights.

Rounds Cook Feb 2023 - July 2023

The Farmers Daughter Sudbury, MA

- Prepared dishes for a rotating seasonal menu using locally sourced ingredients.
- Supported multiple stations and roles during high-volume service. 250+

Brunch Chef Oct 2020 - Jan 2023

Birchwood Inn & Tavern Temple, NH

- Created and led a Sunday brunch menu focused on local, seasonal ingredients while managing ordering, inventory, and scheduling.
- Supported dinner service as a sauté cook, with a focus on beef and lamb.

References available upon request